

These 'Dogs will hunt!

By Ricky Mulara, Sports Editor

Back in 1991 things looked bleak for the Brantley Bulldogs. The football coach had resigned just weeks before the season was to start and former-coach Roland Jones agreed at the last minute to step in and try to help. The '91 Bulldogs struggled to a 4-7 record and got wiped out in the opening round of the 2A playoffs by Reeltown. The loss was complete, but in the loss were signs that better times were ahead, as players from Brantley in the eighth, ninth and tenth grades took the fight to Reeltown for all four quarters and got up every single time they got knocked down.

In 1992 the Bulldogs were a year older and determined to start paying folks back for the rude treatment the year before. Coach Jones was still around, as were most of the players from the year before, and Brantley improved its record to 10-2 and made it to the second round of the 1A playoffs before being upset on the road.

The 1993 Bulldogs were the team that the Brantley football fans had been looking forward to since pee-wee football, and with the addition of the players from the old Dozier High School, the fans were convinced that this team would win big. Boy were they ever right! Brantley breezed through the regular season outscoring their opponents by a combined score of 353-15, and then took care of business in the playoffs, including two big road wins over such powerful teams as defending state champ Billingsley and 1A powerhouse Notasulga.

Brantley won the right to host the state championship game, but the sportswriters in the big cities gave the Bulldogs little chance, especially since their opponent was West Jefferson, the team that beat big, bad Courtland, and boasted the state's all-time leading rusher in Thomas Banks. I heard a fan before the game ask another fan how Brantley planned on stopping Banks and his answer was simple "We'll tackle him."

The Bulldogs did just that, and much more Friday night as they gave their faithful fans plenty to cheer about by winning the state championship in convincing fashion as they pounded West Jefferson 36-0 and kept Thomas Banks contained all night long. Yes, they "tackled him."

The story of the game is featured elsewhere in this week's paper. I want to stop for a minute and look at the real story, the coaches and players that made the state championship possible. One has to start with Coach Roland Jones and his son, Roland "Little Roland" Jones. The elder Coach Jones reluctantly took over the program when it was at its lowest point and slowly built it back using his love for the kids and teaching old fashioned values like pride, hard work and determination. He saw a group of kids that wanted to play football, and sacrificed his time to teach them to the best of his ability, which proved to be the best anyone could have done.

"Little Roland" wasn't a member of the faculty at Brantley and wasn't promised one cent in salary, but he had coached this group of kids since they first pulled on the pads and volunteered to help his Dad when the coaching staff dwindled down to almost no one. He learned with the younger players his first year and as his father gave him more responsibility, his skills as a coach and a motivator began to shine through. As an offensive coordinator, the younger Coach Jones was often second guessed, especially when plays didn't work, but his play calling created real problems for opposing coaches and his total unpredictability was one of the offense's biggest weapons. Another weapon was his enthusiasm and love for the kids, and their love back for him. It was a match made in heaven, and one that brought the Bulldogs to the promised land in high school football.

A lot of things stick out in my mind about Friday night's game, such as the skills of senior Derek Caldwell on both offense and defense and how well he threw the football to loosen up the West Jefferson defense. I also remember Andrew Kilcrease, one of Brantley's six seniors, coming off the field a number of times in tears holding his broken arm after either being hit, or delivering a big hit. He played both ways in spite of the broken arm, and played without reservation. How about Andreu Daniels, a senior lineman, making tackles all over the field and often catching the opposing backs before they could get to the corner? Perhaps the happiest memories for Brantley fans will be the play of junior Charlie Layton picking up a fumble and running it in for a touchdown, or sophomore Marco Jones breaking loose on a 54-yard TD sprint, or sophomore Fred Upshaw racing 94-yards for a TD, or sophomore Derraine James making tackles all over the field, or junior Jimmy Burnett catching a pass and outrunning the defenders for a 76-yard touchdown, or even 8th grader Jonathan Billups recovering a fumble on a kickoff that led to a Bulldog score. The memories go on and on and on.

Another lasting memory is Brantley principal Mrs. Elizabeth Sullivan coming out on the field after the game wearing a state championship t-shirt and waving her arms in excitement. Every team that won a state championship last weekend in all six classes was happy after the game. However, nowhere was the excitement more honest, genuine and deserving than Brantley, Alabama.

Brantley Bulldog coach Roland Jones (facing camera) gives a big victory hug to his son, and assistant coach Roland Jones, Jr., as the final seconds tick off the clock in Friday night's state championship win.

Brantley's Eric Crenshaw (68) displays his "state championship smile" after Friday night's 36-0 win over West Jefferson. Crenshaw made 10 solo tackles as the Bulldog defense registered its 9th shutout of the season.

Brantley fans arrived early and stayed late Friday night to watch the Bulldogs win the state title. This trio of fans has supported the Bulldogs for years and Friday night saw the state title finally come home.

Brantley cheerleaders had a reason to smile Friday night following the big 36-0 state championship win over West Jefferson. The Bulldog cheerleaders helped the Bulldogs to a banner 15-0 season.

Brantley High School principal Elizabeth Sullivan was the first Bulldog fan to wear a "State Championship" t-shirt passed out to the players and coaches after Friday night's big win.

BRAINSTORMS

With Ferrin Cox

We are complaining about the misuse of the handicapped parking places in town. We recently saw a really physically impaired woman walking a good distance to the post office because a very able-bodied young woman thought she was in a big hurry and parked illegally in the lone handicapped parking zone. Not only was this able-bodied person breaking the law, it is cruel and just ain't right. Walking a mile in the shoes of those who must struggle to keep up in this fast world would probably correct such thoughtlessness. If so, then that should be the punishment for this particular crime.

Two families in Beauregard, Alabama (Lee County), will have a sad Christmas this year because of the deaths of two popular teenagers in an automobile accident. Apparently this wasn't their doing either. The reports indicate they were stopped at a stop sign, were hit in the rear by another student and knocked into the path of a bus. Suddenly two bubbling young lives are ended. The shock to the student body was strong. We just hope they remember this and drive more carefully the next time they are out on the highways. It is something we all need to remember.

Medical science still hasn't cured the "common" cold. Well maybe they have. This week we read that there ain't no such thing as a "common" cold. How is that for a cure? Actually experts say there are as many as 200 viruses which cause cold symptoms. Even these, the experts claim, are constantly mutating (changing) and the medicines become ineffective.

We thought that election day would end all the talk about Bill Clinton and the "Tomb" women in his life outside marriage. We were wrong. Now two Arkansas state troopers are "talking" and the talk ain't nice. We were not there to agree or disagree, but some of their claims are hard for this naive country boy to believe possible.

Those of you who have never seen the Swiss Alps, or share our dreams of seeing them again, you better get on the move. A feature in the November Smithsonian magazine points out the destruction tourism and other modern day developments are causing to the natural beauty of those mountains. We wonder if we will ever again experience the beauty and serenity of the Alps which have made these mountains so popular. The winter, snow ski time is not what stirs our interest the most, even though that is pretty. It is the picture perfect sight of the mountains and the green meadows of summer, when the only sound we hear is a far off bell of a cow or goat as the herdsmen move their livestock to the lush green grass. It is almost unbelievable, just remembering.

My middle age spread has been with me since childhood. It doesn't help keep it under control when friends keep bringing fattening foods to us at the office. We have a bunch of friends who are great cooks and most of them like to show off their talents. Tuesday of this week, another one was in prime form, bringing in three trays of Christmas goodies. Needless to say, this country boy didn't want to hurt any feelings, nor let any good food waste so we just ate and ate and ate some more... but it sure was good! We give thanks for such generous and talented friends.

FROM THE HOUSE

Congressman
Terry Everett

A Year of Change For the Second Congressional District

The last twelve months have brought new political faces and challenges for the citizens of Southeast Alabama.

From Prattville to Wetumpka to Tallahassee down to Evergreen, Andalusia and Dothan, the new Second District came together in 1993 to face a drastically different White House with an equally disquieting national legislative agenda.

On January 5, 1993, the thirteen counties of the old Second Congressional District joined together with Autauga and Elmore to form a new district.

On this same day, I was sworn in as your new Congressman. It is hard to believe that a full year has passed since I first opened Congressional offices and began taking your constituent requests. But what a year it has been!

We began the year on a positive note with the assignment of the House committee seats for the Second District — something rarely allowed for a member of Congress.

This has given Southeast Alabama residents a voice on three important House panels: Armed Services, Agriculture, and Veterans Affairs. For the first time, the Second District's major interests — farming, military, and veterans — all have direct representation in the U.S. Congress.

During the course of the year, we were able to secure the necessary funding to keep missions at Maxwell-Gunter and Fort Rucker rolling smoothly, but unfortunately, no decision has yet been made on the future of Navy basic helicopter training consolidation.

If approved by the Pentagon, this action could ultimately bolster

Fort Rucker's flight training by 250 students while adding $70 million into the Wiregrass economy. I'll continue to monitor this situation in the coming year. It is also unclear what effect the change in the Secretary of Defense will have on the final decision.

We also witnessed the passage of the North American Free Trade Agreement which I steadfastly opposed because of its repercussions on our textile and farming industries.

As chairman of the House Republican Task Force Against NAFTA, I joined with workers in Southeast Alabama and across this nation in exposing the fallacies in this trade agreement.

To our dismay, NAFTA still was passed into law. Its effects on our local economy will be watched in the coming year and I'll push for a Congressional freeze on the trade accord if the need arises.

Another change for Southeast Alabama with effects yet to be felt is the passage of the President's huge tax bill. Come April 15th, Alabamians will join in collective shock with most Americans as the full pain of Mr. Clinton's new budget kicks in.

It has been estimated that as many as 9,600 Alabama jobs will be lost as a result of the anti-business provisions in the new tax bill. I voted against the tax increases and supported a budget plan that would have cut spending without raising taxes.

Also, some of the most disappointing news in 1993 was the failure of the Congress to bite the bullet and implement real and meaningful reform.

Next week, I'll offer my assessment of the highs and lows of the First Session of the 103rd Congress.

Merry Christmas

Hanchey - City settlement officially signed last week

by Ferrin Cox
Publisher

The settlement papers in the Freddie Hanchey nine million dollar lawsuit against the City of Elba and Mayor Ricky Haywood individually were officially signed last week.

Several references were made throughout the document making it clear that there were no admissions by either party as to any issue of fact in the matter.

Monetary settlements in the case totaled "approximately $50,000," according to the settlement decree from Federal Judge Harold Albright. However totals of the individual numbers gets a figure of $50,990.76.

The entire settlement will be paid by the City of Elba. The insurance carried by the city covers only the cost of the city's attorneys in lawsuits. It does not cover any settlement cost in wrongful firing cases. Included in the settlement is

"The Mayor and Council Members will jointly participate in a project to procure, and fully understand, materials and documents from the Alabama League of Municipalities concerning the operation of city government."

$9,084.13 of back pay for Hanchey; $1,906.63 to the Alabama Retirement System to keep his re-irement fund continuous; plus an additional $10,000 will also be paid to Hanchey. Attorney fees and costs of prosecution totaling $30,000 must also be paid.

The total amount of the settlement need not be paid immediately. Hanchey is a lieutenant in the police department. As part of the settlement agreement he will, "occupy the position of third in command, second only to chief of police and the second in command."

The agreement also reads that if a vacancy occurs in the second in command slot, Hanchey shall be considered for the vacancy...with due regard given to his entire tenure with the Elba Police Department. He will be paid $11,000 per hour as a Lieutenant of Police. Any chance that someone of authority might retaliate in any manner against Hanchey for his actions in the matter are eliminated in the terms of the agreement.

The city officials shall abide by all of the rules, regulations, procedures and policies adopted by the State of Alabama and the City of Elba. The consent order includes requirement the city follow the City of Elba personnel policies and procedures manual.

All records relating to the events of the past months will be corrected to eliminate any reference to anything but that Hanchey has been on leave with pay from the period January 11, 1993 to the date he actually returns to duty.

The settlement also includes a requirement that, "The Mayor and Council Members will jointly participate in a project to procure, and fully understand, materials and documents from the Alabama League of Municipalities concerning the operation of city government." They must "provide the court documented proof of compliance with the order of mandatory participation by the Mayor and City Council in this educational experience and demonstrate proof of participation."

Hanchey was represented by Michael Wicker, Sr., Debbie Jarod and Paul A. Young, Jr.

$5 million claim lodged against county

by Marvin McLwain
Editor

A $5,000,000.00 claim has been filed against the City of Enterprise, Coffee County and the Coffee County Commission.

The claim was filed on behalf of Edien Meredith McCrady by her mother, Carol McCrady.

Edien McCrady, age 18, was killed during a hostage situation that occurred on September 21 in the Enterprise Shopping Center.

Miss McCrady worked for Bealls Department Store in which the incident took place.

Also killed was Napoleon Verdys Burrows, age 28, who had allegedly rape and taken Miss McCrady hostage.

The two were killed when Burrows exited the store in an attempt to leave the area.

Nicky Kelley, a second hostage, was unhurt in the escape attempt.

The claim, dated December 16, 1993, was filed with the Coffee County Commission office on December 16, 1993.

In the claim, it is noted that McCrady was an employee of Bealls on or about September 21, 1993 and that she was raped, assaulted, battered and taken hostage by a gunman later identified to be Burrows.

It is further noted that "certain avenues of escape through the rear doors at Bealls Department Store were locked, blocked, or otherwise made unusable so as to cut off avenues of escape for the now deceased minor, Edien Meredith McCrady, as well as others."

The victim's mother claims that "The City of Enterprise, the County of Coffee County and their agents, servants, representatives and employees, including but not limited to, the police officers and law enforcement personnel present on the scene on the occasion of this incident and their supervisors and superiors, were negligent, careless and/or reckless on this occasion in allowing, permitting, or causing the events as described herein to occur resulting in the death of Edien Meredith McCrady, a minor."

The claim further holds the named parties responsible for allowing the back doors, fire doors, or rear exits to be locked, blocked, and/or otherwise unusable during business hours.

It is also charged by the claimant that the entities and individuals described in the claim were "negligent, careless and/or reckless in failing to have adequate, sufficient and necessary policies, procedures, guidelines, or protocols for the handling of hostage situations such as the one on the occasion made the basis of this claim."

The claimant further holds the parties named in the document negligent by failing to have sufficient and adequately trained marksmen present on the scene to handle any hostage situation that might arise; failing to provide adequate and proper equipment; and permitting the marksmen to fire at the gunman and hostages under the circumstances on this occasion.

It is further claimed "that alternative plans, procedures or protocols for the protection and rescue of the hostages, including Edien Meredith McCrady, should have been implemented."

Mrs. McCrady is being represented in the matter by Hogan, Smith, Aspaugh, Samples & Pratt, P.C. of Birmingham, AL.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Elba Clipper Staff,

Our town has just experienced the most memorable event winning the IA Championship. Your paper has made it an even greater experience by your great coverage. I just had to write and thank everyone concerned.

My son, Charlie Layton, had a good year and it was wonderful seeing his picture and his teammates each week in The Elba Clipper.

I know I speak for everyone in

Thank again,
Dianne Layton

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Cox,

Merry Christmas! I hope this finds you both happy and healthy. I'm doing fine. I'm still working at Bay Medical Center in Panama City and I really enjoy it. I'm learning so much about the healthcare industry; it's very challenging. I'm enrolling in the MBA program at Florida State University this spring. I am hoping that I will be accepted.

I work around 50-55 hours a week which leaves me very little time for myself. When I do have spare time, I visit with my 2-year old nephew, Logan.

I certainly do miss everyone, especially around the holidays, with those special church musicals. Do tell everyone I say "Hello & Merry Christmas."

Happy Christmas & Happy New Year

ESJC Offers Telecourses

by Amy Calhoun

Enterprise State Junior College For the person who is busy and for one reason or another can't attend regular class periods, the telecourses offered at Enterprise State Junior College may be just the answer.

The telecourses are convenient because the student simply watches the classes which are broadcast on Alabama Public Television, Channel 2, WDOX, Dozier. In addition to 90 minute programs which air each week, the student must attend required orientation sessions, read the required text and use a study guide. Also, the student must maintain contact with their instructor, attend study sessions, and take exams at a scheduled time.

Debbie Adams, who works in the ESJC Admissions Office, is enrolled in the telecourses as she works toward a degree.

"The telecourse schedule is perfect for someone like me, who works all day and can't attend day classes, but doesn't want to attend night classes either because that would take time away from the family," Adams explains.

She says she tapes the classes which air on APT so she can watch them at her leisure.

"I really help to tape the classes because the reading material, textbook, study guide and classes are all linked together," Adams says. "The instructors are always accessible, so that make it better."

She says the instructors are helpful in setting a time which is most convenient to the student to take the required tests.

"Most instructors will set a day and night time, so students can come at the time that's best for them," she explains.

Although the telecourses are very convenient for Adams, she says they are probably harder than regular classes because students can't talk to the instructor during the class period to ask questions.

"In regular classes the instructor might introduce some material but say it isn't going to be on the test; well, you don't have that convenience in the telecourses," Adams says. "There is a lot of material to cover, and the student just has to learn it all."

But weighing all of the pros and cons, Adams says the conveniences far outweigh the disadvantages of the telecourses.

"The telecourse schedule is a good program, and students have to have a lot of self-discipline to make themselves put in the studying time required to do well," she explains. "I believe students taking a telecourse can get as much out of it as they would a traditional class."

The telecourses available for winter quarter are Personal and Community Health, Principles of Economics I, Principles of Management and U. S. History II.

So for students who may have forgotten to register, or couldn't register for traditional winter quarter classes, ESJC is accepting registration for the telecourse classes.

The telecourses begin January 8. For more information on these classes call 393-ESJC, ext. 273.

J. A. Young Retires From SAEC Board Of Trustees

After more than 40 years of service, Mr. J. A. Young has retired from the South Alabama Electric Cooperative Board of Trustees. Young resigned his position as secretary-treasurer and retired from the board due to health reasons.

Round & About With Eria-897-2006

by Margaret Bartles

The Silver Square Lodge and Equity Chapter #29 will hold a St. John Fellowship Dinner at the Greater New Zion Baptist Church of Elba, AL on December 27, 1993 at 6:00 p.m.

The welcome will be given by Sis. Mary H. Robinson and a solo will be performed by Sis. Joyce Coleman.

Dinner will be served. All sisters and brothers' wives are asked to provide a covered dish.

To those unable to attend because of sickness, we send our good wishes for a speedy recovery.

These things are serious. We must overcome these sins, these habits, these sudden temptations be cleansed of them thoroughly-if we expect to get through to the Kingdom and inherit eternal life.

"To him that overcometh," says Jesus, "will I grant to sit with Me in My throne." (Rev. 3:21)

"He that overcometh, and keepeth My works unto the end, he will I give power over the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron." (Rev. 2:26-27)

Not all are even called, now. Many though they may have heard the true message, have never received a conscious convicting knowledge of the truth. This is not the time when God is calling them.

But God is now calling some to a life of separation-to a new and different and spirit-filled and spirit-led life in order that they may be wholly cleansed of sin, and that they may grow in grace and knowledge, thus being prepared, trained, fitted for a position of solemn responsibility-that of king or priest-in God's Kingdom.

From the Pastor's Desk Dr. John L. Gray, Elba Zion Baptist Church.

Thinking of you, praying for you, The Kelley kids, Mason Guiley, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Bullard, Mr. Edd E. Marshall, Mrs. Eva Barrow, Mrs. Versie Barnes, Mrs. Beulah Horwood, Rev. J. Caldwell, Mrs. Ida Hooks.

THE SON OF MAN

In the four "Gospel" records, the Lord Jesus Christ refers to Himself about eighty times as "the son of man". This title is based upon a passage in Daniel's prophecy in which "dominion, and glory, and a kingdom" are given unto one who appeared as "the Son of Man" (Dan. 7:13, 14). This kingdom, "shall not pass away, and... shall not be destroyed."

As the term "Son of God" speaks of our Lord's deity and the term "Son of Man" emphasizes His all it is as Son of man that our Lord represented us at Calvary, paying the penalty for our sins that He might deliver us from the judgment to come. "For the Son of man came... to give His life a ransom for many" (Mark 10:45). In "due time" the Apostle Paul was raised up to proclaim the glad news that the great Mediator had given Himself to "save for ALL" (1 Tim. 2:6).

It is as "Son of Man" that He will reign as King of the world, as "King of kings" as we have seen above. It is also as "Son of Man" that He will judge the nations just before His kingdom reign.

"When the Son of Man shall come in His glory, and all the holy angels

More Santa letters...

Dear Santa,
I would love to have a nice little amount of money totaling $15,000 if that is no problem. Also, after I spend that money, I would LOVE a new wardrobe to go with the new me. Oh, and Santa, while you are at it, could you please get my friend, Flop, a girlfriend. Frankly, I am tired of trying.

Hugs and kisses,
Arienne Pridden

P.S. I will not be disappointed at all if you will take the time to put G.C. in my stocking. Thanks!

Dear Santa,
My intentions were the best, even though they were not that good. So all I want for Christmas is the "ouchy" on my truck fixed.

See ya,
Becky Peters

P.S. Please let all my friends and family get everything they want and let everyone have a safe holiday. Thanks!

Dear Santa,
First of all, I would like to say that I have been a good girl this year. Well, I have tried. Anyway, I would LOVE to have from now tickets to all the Guns 'N' Roses concerts and please do not forget the backstage passes. Next, I would like some keys to a black '76 Stingray Corvette and please do not forget the Corvette. Last, but not least, I would like to tell all my friends (especially Ben, Ben, and Kramer) and my family (especially Daddy, Mommy, Barbara, Charlie, my Starvartan, Friggie, Spike, Bubba, and Baby) a Merry Christmas and I love you all! Thanks Santa.

Always,
Bobbie Simmons

Dear Santa,
I guess I have been as good as I could be this year. What I need for Christmas is an excuse to party for the rest of the school year to be used as many times as I need (probably everyday). I would also like some clothes, hats, and toys!

Thine,
Jessi Thomas

Dear Santa,
First of all, I have been a very good girl this year. I deserve the world, but I will not ask for it. All I am asking for this year is a brand new 1993 black Lexus with a three degree tint on the windows. I would also like lots and lots of money, but if you do not have that, I will settle for just lots and lots of money. On a serious note, I wish that everyone will have a very nice Christmas and please let everyone have someone to spend their Christmas with. I would like to wish a special Merry Christmas to my fellow seniors. May you all have everything you wish for and much, much more. I love you all very dearly and you mean more to me than you will ever know.

Love always,
Tashaun Neal

P.S. I would like to say Merry Christmas to my Mom and my sisters, Tawana and Traciella. I love you all.

Dear Santa,
I have tried to be a good girl this year, although I hope you have not been watching to close. I really do not want much for Christmas. Even though, I would LOVE to have a black '94 Ford Ranger 4x4 parked in my front yard Christmas morning. If not, bring me anything you have left over. I am not that picky!

Love you,
Stephanie Nelson

P.S. I hope you have a nice Christmas!

Dear Santa,
Since you did not hear my wish last year for the Mitsubishi 3000 GT, I guess I will have to ask for it again. I would like it white with grey leather interior, a CD player, and a cellular phone. My other wish is a small one! I want everything I ever wanted and I don't want anything! (Or Vice Versa).

Thanks and see ya next year,
Gloria Sullivan

Seniors Write "Dear Santa" Letters

Edited by: Laura Brown

Well, well, well. It is that yoyous time of year once again. The time of year that people just hate to love, the time for spending money that you usually do not have and for eating way too much and gaining back every ounce of weight that you struggled so hard to lose just a few months ago. But most importantly, it is the time of year to share the gift of giving and spending time with loved ones. Finding out what everyone is doing over the holidays is one thing that can be heard in the halls of Zion Chapel. Things like "I'm going to sleep 'til 12:00 every day!" can be heard as you walk down the hall or sit in class. Other things that can be heard are "Yo man, what you get'n for Christmas?" or "What's Santa bringing you this year?" Everyone agreed to do what she wished. I am sure she would insist on spending it away from Dad and I. Without us to keep her going though, especially the "I want this, I want that" remarks dished out by myself, she would probably just waste away. For my Dad, I wish for him to get everything he wants. I know catching up on all the lives of the rest of the Brown family is something he is very excited about. For Tim and Tony, I think I can take care of. I am going to aggravate them more than ever before, but I know they will still love it, because to them "I will always be their baby sister." For Samantha and Nicole, I wish you luck. You are going to need it if you plan on getting everything they want. Dad, get me a new truck and a bass boat to match.

Thanks,
Ernest Baker

P.S. Santa Claus, I want you to know that I, no matter what, will always be here in you!

Dear Santa,
I want to pass my research paper and get my diploma on May 27, 1994. Oh, a Harley would be nice.

Sincerely,
Tim Baker

Dear Santa,
I really do not want a lot for Christmas. Just for the people I love to be happy and get everything they wish for. For myself, however, I would like a pair of Nikes, a CD cassette player, a ring, and an outfit. I have tried my best to be good this year, so when I wake up Christmas morning, I expect all these things under the tree.

Love,
Sheriff Bello

Dear Santa,
Here is my wish list for this Christmas. To begin with I would like a Porsche 911. I would like it to be a nice metallic green with leather interior. Do not forget the tinted windows. CD player, the cellular phone (with all phone calls free, of course), and anything else you could possible think of. I would also like a beach house on my own Caribbean Island, along with the table. We will have a fire burning, so use the front door. I hope the weather is nice. Oh ya, I knitted Mrs. Claus a scarf. You can pick it up when you stop by. See ya later, alligator.

Your friend,
Ben Cuate

Dear Santa,
I have really been a good girl this year and I really do not want anything for Christmas, but if I were to get anything, I would like a car. I would also like for my family to be together for Christmas, happy and cheerful. I hope you and yours have a very good Christmas.

From a very good girl,
Patty Koch

P.S. Please make sure all my friends and family get what they want.

Dear Santa,
The main thing I want for Christmas is LOTS of time to spend with my boyfriend. I want everything else to be a surprise. Oh, Merry Christmas!

Love,
Denise Marler

Dear Santa,
I have been a good girl this year, so I want a lot of money, a big house, and a lot of money, that would be all I wanted for Christmas. I do not mean two dollars, I mean something more like $62.5 million. If you can get me all of this, that will be all I want.

Yours truly,
Cory Haynes

Dear Santa,
I want a MF Harley Davidson Heritage Softail and some cash GREEN. Cya.

Sincerely,
Chris Hodges

P.S. I guess I could use a date with any fine looking young lady of your choice.

Dear Santa,
All I want for Christmas is a set of big tires for my 4-wheel drive truck and a set of chrome roll bars to go in the back.

All I want for Christmas is a set of big tires for my 4-wheel drive truck and a set of chrome roll bars to go in the back.

Dear Santa,
I have been a good girl this year and I really do not want anything for Christmas, but if I were to get anything, I would like a car. I would also like for my family to be together for Christmas, happy and cheerful. I hope you and yours have a very good Christmas.

From a very good girl,
Patty Koch

P.S. Please make sure all my friends and family get what they want.

Dear Santa,
The main thing I want for Christmas is LOTS of time to spend with my boyfriend. I want everything else to be a surprise. Oh, Merry Christmas!

Love,
Denise Marler

Dear Santa,
I have been a good girl this year, so I want a lot of money, a big house, and a lot of money, that would be all I wanted for Christmas. I do not mean two dollars, I mean something more like $62.5 million. If you can get me all of this, that will be all I want.

Yours truly,
Cory Haynes

Brantley honors 1A state football champions

The student body, faculty and supporters of Brantley High School gathered on Thursday afternoon, Dec. 16, at the Brantley High School gym to honor the student-athletes and coaches that recently brought to Brantley the school's first-ever state championship in football.

Students and teachers in grades K-12, along with a large number of area dignitaries, packed into the gym for the hour-long celebration.

Brantley High School principal

Mrs. Elizabeth Sullivan greeted the large crowd and stated "Pride is the word that best describes this football team and the commitment it made. The members of this group truly are champions."

Supt. of Education Sam Carr echoed the sentiments of Mrs. Sullivan, and told the crowd "A lot of the credit for the success of this group of young people goes to the parents and the community as a whole."

He then read a resolution and presented copies of the resolution to all the members of the coaching staff. State Senator Wendell Mitchell and Representative Charles Newton congratulated the team and its supporters, while also reading and presenting resolutions were Probate Judge Dwight Faulk and Crenshaw County Commission Chairman Johnny Smith, while County School Board member Bernie Sullivan "congratulated" the team and presented Coach Roland Jones with a large sign proclaiming the Brantley Bulldogs the "1993 Class 1A State Champions."

Mr. James Hollis, of Brantley Bank, Mr. Frank Moore, of Dozer Manufacturing Company, Mr. Jim Sonnenburg, of Pepsi Cola and Mr. Randy Johnson, president of the Brantley Quarterback Club, were also introduced and joined in the praises of the team.

Head Coach Roland Jones thanked everyone who helped the football program during the championship season and stated "There is a winning atmosphere here in Brantley. The people in the town gladly give their support to the school and all it does, and these supporters are the foundation for the success these students have accomplished. We must work together to be a success in anything, and this group did just that."

The Brantley Student Council presented medallions to all coaches and members of the football team and cheerleading squads, while the cheerleaders presented the football team with a plaque, and the faculty of the school gave certificates to all coaches, players and cheerleaders.

Mr. Felix Norman thanked everyone behind the scenes that helped make the season one to be remembered, and Mr. Kenneth Grantham, of All-Star Sports and Graphics, presented the school with a framed replica of the state championship t-shirts that were designed by his business.

Terry McDuffy, of WKMX-FM, presented the team with the radio station's "Team of the Year" trophy, and the final speaker was Mr. Dan Washburn, Executive Director of the Alabama High School Athletic Association.

Mr. Washburn told the gathering "It is a pleasure to be back in Brantley and to present the students with another state championship trophy. Championships don't just happen. People must have a vision to win championships, and here in Brantley this season many people had the same vision. This championship is for all the students and supporters of Brantley High School."

"It takes leadership from seniors to win championships," added Washburn, "and although this team had only six seniors, those six displayed leadership through the many long hours of practice and through the season. Three hundred and sixty-six teams started the season and at the end only six earned the state championship trophies. Brantley was one of these teams and it is an honor to present the trophy to the students and everyone in Brantley, Alabama."

All-Star Sports & Graphics owner Kenneth Grantham (right) presents a framed "State Championship" print to Bulldog coach Roland Jones. The print was identical to the one on the state championship t-shirts.

BRANTLEY BULLDOG SENIORS were honored with a front row view of the presentation of the Class 1A State Championship trophy last week during ceremonies at Brantley High School. The Bulldogs were honored with an hour long ceremony attended by the Brantley student body and visiting dignitaries.
